

FIG. 1. Extinction record for the past 250 ma. Letter codes (bottom) identify stratigraphic stages. The best-fit 26-ma cycle is shown along the top. The relative heights of extinction peaks should not be taken as literal expressions of extinction intensity because the absence of extant taxa exaggerates the heights of younger peaks.